

Dr. Haile Debas, Board of Regents Member

Dr. Debas is the Executive Director of Global Health Sciences at the University of California-San Francisco. He is also the Maurice Galante Distinguished Professor of Surgery and holds hospital appointments at the University of California Medical Center and the Mount Zion Medical Center.

Dr. Debas received his BSc in Biology from Addis Ababa University College (1958) and an MD from McGill University (1963). He also completed courses in management and administrative training at Harvard University and the Association of American Medical Colleges.

Dr. Debas is a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and a member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the International Society for Digestive Surgery, the American Association of Endocrine Surgeons, the Institute of Medicine, the American Board of Surgery and the American Medical Association, among many others. He has received honorary degrees from McGill University, Imperial College, Oregon Health Sciences University and the University of British Columbia. Dr. Debas has received the Abraham Flexner Award from the American Association of Medical Colleges (2004), a Fellowship at the Rockefeller Foundation Bellagio Study and Conference Center (1999) and the Diversity Promotion Award from the University of California San Francisco Council of Minority Organizations (1996). He is also a member of the United Nations Commission for HIV/AIDS and Governance in Africa.

Dr. Debas has authored over 200 publications, including 2 books, 38 book chapters, and 100 abstracts. He has also presented at over 100 international, national and regional scientific meetings